Casual Market Chicago Celebrates Park & Oak Interior Design's Top Finds

Influential Chicago area-based firm served as style ambassadors and trend trackers during the annual 4-day event

Chicago, IL (September 30, 2019) – Casual Market Chicago had the pleasure of hosting Park & Oak Interior Design, based in Glen Ellyn, Illinois. Drawing on a mix of design styles and influences, the residential interior design firm's unique creative depth and architectural and construction know-how, Park & Oak ensures a highly individualized, worry-free, enjoyable experience – which connects perfectly with outdoor living trends.

“We are seeing such an exciting transformation of the casual industry and how both designers and clients approach outdoor designs,” said co-founders of Park & Oak, Christina Samatas and Renee DiSanto. “What was once an industry filled with far too many furniture sets and stiff materials now provides offerings that truly feel like an extension of the home. From upholstered outdoor sofas to beautifully woven rugs, Casual Market really showcased the movement of taking what works indoors to the outdoors.”
